1. The English weather

English speakers love to talk about the weather. It is a way of breaking the ice (starting a conversation). People talk about the weather on the phone and in person. Friends and family talk about the weather before they discuss what's new. Co-workers talk about the weather before starting a hard day of work. Even strangers discuss the weather.

a. Here are a collection of expressions you will find useful. How would you say them in Hungarian?

It's foggy today. -

What a beautiful day! -

What miserable weather! -

It is raining cats and dogs. -

The weather is fine. -

It is clearing up. -

There is a strong wind. -

It looks like rain. -

b. Read the article about Britain's weather conditions and mark the sentences as T (true) or F (false).

Britain has quite a cold climate. The weather there is often rainy and cloudy. It usually snows in winter and it is very cold. The sky is grey and cloudy most of the time. In autumn, it is often quite windy and the leaves fall from the trees. Spring isn't very warm and it rains a lot. Summer is usually warm and sunny. But sometimes it is cloudy and rainy.

You never know what weather to expect in Britain. But one thing is certain – you always need to carry an umbrella with you, just in case it rains.

1. Britain has a warm climate.
2. It usually snows in winter.
3. It is often warm in autumn.
4. It rains a lot in spring.
5. It is usually warm in summer.
6. You always know what weather to expect in Britain.

2. Read the poem. Write it onto a separate sheet of paper and make an illustration around it. Your illustration should include all the highlighted words.

The friendly tree

I wanted a tree
For shade and rest,
I wanted a tree
Where a bird could nest.

So I planted a green
Friendly tree
For myself, and a bird,
And a honey bee!

Shakespeare 400

2016 commemorates 400 years since the death of William Shakespeare. He was widely regarded as the greatest writer in the English language. He is often called England's national poet, and the "Bard of Avon". To the world, he left a lasting legacy in the form of 38 plays, 154 sonnets, and two narrative poems.

<http://www.shakespeare400.org/>

Imagine that you are an English teacher in a grammar school in Oxford. You organize a 3 day excursion (21-23 April, 2016) for your class to London to participate in some of the events of Shakespeare 400.

Prepare a 2 page (size A4) information material for the parents about the trip.

- The following points should be covered:
 - Main purpose of the trip. Write 2-3 sentences about the anniversary and what this trip will add to students' knowledge and general outlook on Shakespeare.
 - Programme – List all the programmes you plan to participate (minimum 1 per day) and write a short introduction (3-4 sentences) about each event.
 - Practical information – Write a daily schedule: when you start the trip, where you stay in London, where you will eat, when each programme takes place. Draw a map on where the accommodation will be found.
- Please illustrate your work!
- List the sources that you used to put your work together. Do not copy from the Internet, use your own words!
- Give a title to your work.
